

Klamath Tribes/Chiloquin Community Early Reading Project

December 3, 2014

The mission of Oregon Solutions:

Solving community based problems through collaboration.

Involving multiple sectors:

- Business
- Government
- Non-profit

The Oregon Solutions Process

1. A problem or opportunity is defined by the community
2. The governor designates the project as an Oregon Solutions project and selects co-conveners
3. An Oregon Solutions Project Team from multiple sectors is created
4. Resources are leveraged and an integrated solution is created
5. A Declaration of Cooperation is signed

Benefits of Oregon Solutions

The Oregon Solutions System provides:

- A neutral forum
- Respected conveners
- Ability to leverage additional resources through collaboration
- Community accountability

Over 60 projects completed statewide

Project Goals

- Prevent poverty and increase prosperity by making sure all Klamath Tribes/Chiloquin community children are prepared to read when they enter school and are reading at grade level by grade 3
 - Four times less likely to drop out of school, twice as likely to graduate from high school, and three times more likely to go to college
- Implement strategies that incorporate reading into everyday life by engaging parents and communities in ways that are culturally specific and creative
- Focus on children ages 0-6

Klamath Tribes/Chiloquin Community Early Reading Project

Activity	Timeline
Identify Project Team members	December
Submit request to Governor to designate as Oregon Solutions Prosperity Project	December
Project designated by Governor	December
First Project Team meeting	Early January
Second Project Team meeting	Late January
Declarations of Commitments identified	Early February
Declaration of Cooperation signing ceremony	Late February

Resources Available

- Klamath Tribes/Chiloquin community selected as one of five focus communities for StORyTime project
- $25,000 grant from Early Learning Council through South Central Early Learning Hub (must be used by June 30, 2015)
- Northwest Area Foundation Prosperity Agenda grant, through Oregon Business Council, will pay for Oregon Solutions process
- Governor's budget includes additional money for early reading
- Many organizations already expressing excitement
- Kathleen Mitchell hired as Oregon Solutions on-site coordinator