

NAYA Generations Project
Project Team meeting
April 14th 2014, 3:30 to 5:30pm
NAYA Family Center
5135 NE Columbia Boulevard

Attended by:

Representative Alissa Keny-Guyer, Rey Espana, Bob Alexander, Sara King, Brian Carleton, Jesse Cornett, Kevin Cronin, Michael Mills, Nick Christensen, Harriet Adair, Jessy Olson, Renee Moseley, Kellie Barber, Rene DuBoise, Derenda Schubert, Mary Nolan, Karina Espana, Greg Raisman, Kathy Swift, Rachel Sowieja, Courtney Morton, and Maha Al Yousufi Brown.

Key Points

- Diagramming the relationship between programs' shared space.
- Finalizing the building envelope design of the ELC/ Long House buildings
- The architectural team is waiting to incorporate the input/ feedback from the listening session meeting.

- Recognize the need to have a classroom for adults
- ELC will have 10 classrooms
  - 3 classrooms for 0-3 years Kids
  - 3 Classrooms for Preschool students
  - 3 Classrooms for kindergarten students
  - 1 classroom for adult classes

- The providers meeting discussed the space/ size required for health and education programs.
- PPS and NAYA are discussing the lease and development agreements.
- PPS and NAYA are working on the details of the facility operational agreements, for example: what are the hours of operations of the ELC? Who pays for the janitorial service, etc?

- Discussing and developing programs that will support the families of children in grade (0 to 3rd).
- The PPS Board is very supportive of the ELC concept and support programs.
- The ELC will address the overcrowding of Kindergarten classes in Lents and Harrison schools.
- PPS supports Head start, Preschool, and Kindergarten classrooms in permanent building instead of pods.

- PPS is investing in serving outer SE children who need it the most.

- Reversing the site design layout for better traffic flow and parking options.
- What works for school zone
  - Traffic signals
  - Speed bumps
  - Designate 20 mph zone around the school
  - What is effective route for the school
  - Neighborhood Greenway (idea)
  - Pick up and drop off parking.
  - Build support for Steel Street.
- ELC will qualify for
  - New Market Credit
  - Qualified Zone Academy Bond Program
  - Reduced lunch

Lents Neighborhood Association “Listening Session” meeting

- PPS and NAYA will present a brief description of the NAYA Generations Project, and then open the meeting for discussion and questions.
- Will show an aerial view of the site and good description of the project.
- Ensure the questions/ comments of the closest residents to the site of NAYA Generations project are heard, at the same time, make sure other residents feel valid ,important, and part of building a strong Lents community.
- Ensure the attendants; this isn’t the only neighborhood meeting to discuss the NAYA Generations project.
- Guardian Real Estate Services will set up a voice mail box for the Lents community to ask questions about the NAYA Generations Project.
- Develop project website for submitting questions and giving progress updates.
- Have a representative from NAYA attend the monthly Lents Neighborhood meeting to build a strong connection with the Lents community.

Action Items

- Develop a sign for the site fence.